CHICAGO, Dec. 20 .- A Times' special from Helena, Montana, says Father Genin arrived at Marias river on Sunday and reported to Fort Benton by essenger that Sitting Bull crossed the line and camped at Bear Paw Mountains with a large force of Sioux and Nez Perces. This is confirmed from other sources. It is state a that the Indians are burning the prairies south of Bear Paw and that Sitting Bull is on Miles' battle ground and has been joined by Lone Deers band of 75 Lodges.

FOREIGN.

Dissensions in the England Cabinet--Parliament Summoned to Approve War Preparations --Victor Emanuel's Wife Dead --Ambassador removed.

New York, Dec. 20.-A Rome special says: The Countess Miratiore, wife of King Victor Emanuel, is reported dead in Turin. The king starts thither to-day. She was married to the King early in 1869 by a Jesuit priest in the most formal and regular manner.

LONDON, Dec. 20.-The Manchester Guardian of this morning, prints a despatch from its London correspondent, that every attempt to strike out a new foreign policy for the government re-vives dissensions in the Cabinet. The retirement of Lord Derby, Foreign Minister, is by no means improbable Among the number of rumored proects necessitating the summoning Parliament, are the increased armaments, a war vote, and the purchase of the Turkish fleet. Several financial articles in this morning's London journals note a marked firmness in Egyptian bonds yesterday amid the general depression, and ascribe it to political reasons.

The Times, in a leading article, throws out strong indications of the writer's belief that Parliament will be asked to vote money for the purchase of further interest of some kind in Egypt. Note-There are two purchases possible, namely: the Khedive's remaining interest on the Suez Canal, and the Porte's suzerainity over Egypt.

The Times urges that there is no change in the situation of the belligerents since Lord Derby's recent speech to the deputation representing the society for the protection of British interests and other political societies which presented a memorial for active interference in favor of Turkey and says all arguments against the interference then remain good now, and the supremacy of Great Britain is not endangered, at the same time there are interests not threatened by the progress of war, except so far as the mutual cohesion of the whole Ottoman Empire is threatened, which might be more strongly protected than they are by acts not in any degree sa-voring of the character of war. We are not going to allow our interests to be bound up with the maintenance of the Ottoman Empire in its integrity or independence. It will be found when the Parliament meets that that the communications the ministers will have to make in both Houses are not inspired by that terror which now disturbs the mental vision and distracts the judgment of so many. The Blunder by Which Georgia Might Lose Several Congress- and unauthorized removal was the men.

[Special correspondence of the World.] ATLANTA, Dec. 12.—The constitution of 1868, made by Radical agency and imposed by Federal power, was at our election a week ago rejected, and a new constitution made by our people adopted. The Homestead of 1868 of $3,000 was voted down, and a smaller one of $1,600 established. The capital was by an immense majority retained in Atlanta, the progressive place of the State, against the prejudices and sentimentality of the people. A Legislature was elected that will choose General John B. Gordon to be his own successor movement for a charge of organic law has been general Robert Tombs. He was a member of the convention and at once leaped to its leadership. To the supreme surprise of his enemies he became the very bulwark of conversatism against a perfect flood tide of ag-gressive extremism. In one thing only did he take extremely advanced ground and that was for the State government putting an iron clutch upon the railroads. The new constitution was invested with supreme power over them. The new constitution blocks forever further increase of the public debt and public improvement with the State's money. It muzzles cities and counties in the same way. The instrument has been very little discussed, as the absorbing issue of the whole matter has the new organic law contains a feature that, unless it is changed, must result in diminishing the Congressional repre-sentation of Georgia. By what want of proper inquiry this remarkable result was brought about it would be boot-less to inquire. But in all of the numerous and exhaustive debates this undesirable consequence seems never to have been hit upon. The fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States has this paragraph.

Representatives shall be apportioned ong the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State or the members of the Legislature thereof is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebeliion or other crime. the basis of Representatives therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear twenty-one years of age in such State.

It will be seen that under this provision of the United States Constituion any abridgment of suffrage by a State except for crime shall reduce Congressional representation proportionate-The new constitution of Georgia, just adopted, prescribes as a qualification to vote that the citizen "shall have paid all taxes which may hereafter be required of him, and which he may have in North Carolina. The ceremony had an opportunity of paying, agreeably to law, except for the year of the election." The old constitution of 1868 Hale, Jr., a brother-in law of the bride, required only the payment of taxes for in the presence of a few relatives and the one year before the election. A friends, Rev. E. W. Joyner, of the tax-payer may have been in default in payment of taxes for half a dozen years, were no attendants but among those the Good Templars of this community the Good Templars of this community the Book of Sol. LAWRENCEVILLE, ILLS., Dec. 20.—

The county treasurer's office has been and it did not operate as a disqualification to vote if he had paid the taxes due the year before the year of the election. The new and more extended disqualifi-cation in the constitution of 1877 will result in the permanent disfranchise ment of a large number of the voters of the State and a consequent decrease in known thoughout the State. In East-Congressional representation. Under the old constitution of 1868 a voter's most of her life, her charms are everydisqualification to vote by reason of where acknowledged. Combining i non-payment of taxes ceased, yearly. Under the new constitution of 1877 such vacity, she commanded the homage o disqualification increases until, in the case of poor men it must become impossible of removal and permanent. Every year the disqualification accumulates, and every year the disfranchised will increase in number, until in the W. F. Hasket, "Pasquot'k" 5,000.00 course of eight or ten years, I deem it no exaggeration to say that from sixty to eighty thousand of the voters of Georgia will be permanently disfranchised, and at the next apportionment of representatives the State will lose several representatives, and thus be shorn of her power and dignity in the national councils. Nor does this species of disqualification come under the head of those forbidden to be done by a State by the fifteenth amendment of the United States Constitutisn, viz., of race, color or previous condition of servitude. It s such disfranchisement as the States are allowed, its only penalty being the decrease of national representation.

This voluntary diminution of the State's Congressional representation admits of but one remedy, and that is an immediate amendment of the new constitution. Had the blunder been exposed it would have defeated the ratcation of the constitution. But in the absorption of the capital issue it and all other questions were overlooked and ignored.

Orphan Asylum and the Pease Property.

(Orphan's Friend, 19th.) The Grand Lodge has instructed the Frand Master to reconvey to Rev. L. M. Pease the land received from him early in the year 1876, on condition that he pay the Grand Treasurer $500 for the improvements made thereon. And now we are at liberty to say some things not said before.

1. In 1875 we opened an Orphan Asylum at Mars Hill, and filled it with orphans, who were fed and clothed ac cording to our means, and taught by an accomplished teacher. That work might have been, and ought to have been continued there to the present

2. Mr. Pease had accumulated a large fortune in New York by speculations real estate, and had retired to the South with the reputation of a philanthropist on account of his mission work at Five Points. He first intended to do a good work for the colored people of Bun-combe. His description of his ludicrous failure is singularly amusing. He last accounted for of 2,467 bales. ### Dastardly Attempt at Murder. (Newbern Nut shell, 19.)

We learn from Mr. C. Askew, the mail carrier between this city and Tren ton, of a dastardly attempt at murder in Jones county.
On Monday night some one approached the residence of Mr. Perry, who lives about three miles west of Trenton, and threw a brick against the building, which alarming the family, Mr. W. T. Perry went to the door for the purpose of discovering who had thrown the missile Immediately upon opening the door he was startled by hearing the discharge of a gun, and received in his face, breast and abdomen a large charge of squirrel shot; the horrified family's first and natural impulse was to ascertain the extent and nature of the wounded man's injuries, and thus the would-be assassin was enabled to escape without leaving any clue as to who he might be, and it is still a mystery, not even a suspicion exists as to who the miscreant can be. Dr. Hart, of Trenton, was at once called in to the wounded man, and while pronouncing the wounds serious, expresses the hope and belief that if in flammation does not set in, the injuries are not necessarily fatal. It is to be hoped that the would-be murderer may be discovered and the full penalty of the law imposed upon

Norfolk Cotton Receipts.

(Norfolk Landmark, 19th) For the corresponding week in 1876 our total receipts of cotton were 20,484 bales, and for the week ending yester-day they reached 22,951 bales, thus showing an excess in favor of the period is very gratifying and a little remarkable, as the cars have not yet crossed take place to-morrow, and thereafter

JOHNSTON COUNTY.

[Special Correspondence of the News.] CLAYTON, N. C.

Perhaps an occasional note from the 'State of Johnston" as Billy Smith used to call it, will not be amiss in your columus. In the first place I'll say that our little town is improving gradually. You see we are of the opinion that spasmodic efforts are not substatial. We live and act under the influence of Davy Crockett's motto, and every step thus taken is a solid advance. and grocery houses. I can't say that they all are making much money, but some certainly are. We have two practicing physicians and a drug store. They are patronized less than any other branch of business because, strange to say, the people about here will not get sick. I know of one man with a family for 12 years who has never had to call in a physician but once in the whole time. How can the doctors stand such treatment as that! We have an excellent school, (male and female) under the management of J. M. White and Mrs. M. J. Moore, both teachers of large experience. The students during the Fall term just closed, numbered fifty, with bright prospects of an increased patronage for

This brings me an item of interest just transpired. Last evening (18th) a fine audience assembled in the nev Good Templar's building to witness the imposing ceremonies of dedication, to be followed by an address from Dr. T. H. Pritchard. At 7 o'clock the exercises were opened by a 'Song of Welcome' admirably rendered by the choir improvised for the occasion. MR. H. R. STEVENS. MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir,—We have good reason for regarding your Vegetine a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age. For the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrolulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope o. his ever railying; two or the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had 1 et vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetine, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerful y and strong.

Though there is still some discharge, from

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured no he has taken about three dozen bott es of Vegetine, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine. Respectfully yours, E.S. BEST, Mrs. L.C. F. BEST.

A Piece of Folly.

Our readers are familiar with the case of Morgan, the negro who is to be hanged at Goldsboro to-day. He was regularly tried, convicted and sentenced the West still continues. Every week to death, in accordance with the laws of the land. Not a shadow of doubt rested upon the overwhelming evidence adduced by the State upon his trial, to establish his guilt. Since the prisoner's conviction and condemnation, nothing has been presented to his Excellency Governor VANCE, to induce him to interpose with Executive clemency. Indeed, It is stated that Captain Brown's offilif we be not mistaken, no petition for a feeble effort to obtain a respite for Morgan in order that the culprit might appear as a witness in that case. In the application for the respite it was stated that Morgan would swear to certain material facts in the case; but before the Governor could dispose of the application, Morgan backed, saying that he'd changed his mind about testifying: "he'd got religion, an' want a

The offence of the doomed man was without extenuating circumstances. It was a deliberate felony, springing from a base, wicked purpose. There is not a single scintilla of cause for pardon, commutation of sentence, or respite. Taking all this into consideration, we were not a little surprised to read in the Goldsboro Messenger of yesterday a statement "that there are wild rumors in circulation that an attempt at rescue will be made by a colored mob when the culprit is led out for execution."These rumors were not without foundation. They were of sufficient importance to move the Sheriff of Wayne yesterday to ask the Governor for military assistance for last night, in protecting the jail, and for to-day in guarding the culprit to the gallows. ### The Late Dr. Bledsoe.

We find the following interesting sketch of the late Dr. Bledsoe, in the last number of the North Carolina Pres-

A few weeks ago Dr. Bledsoe was stricken with paralysis of the brain. On Saturday the 8th inst., he expired.

Albert Taylor Bledsoe was born in 1809, in Frankfort, Kentucky. Graduating from the Military Academy in 1830, he entered the army, where he remained only two years, resigning his commission in 1832. During 1833 and 1834, he was Professor of Mathematics in Kenyon College, Ohio, and filled the same chair in 1835 and 1836 in Miami University. He was ordained in 1835 to the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church, but left the pulpit in 1840, on account of the doctrine of Baptismal Regeneration. From 1840 to 1848 he practised law at Springfield, Illinois. From 1848 to 1853 he was Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy in the University of Mississippi. In 1854 he became Professor of Mathematics in the University of Virginia. He resigned in 1861 and entered the Confederate army as Colonel, but accepted the position of Assistant Secretary of War. In 1863, his health becoming impaired, he resigned and visited Europe. Just after the War he wrote his celebrated argument on State Rights, entitled "Is Jeff. Davis a Traitor?" Before that he had prepared an essay on "Liberty and Slavery," and papers on the political questions of the day, which displayed wonderful erudition had, with the single exception of Hon. Jere. S. Black, so great a pamphleteer as Dr. Bledsoe. He wrote ably on all subjects-theology, mathematics and politics, however, were his favorite departments, and those in which he was Dr. Bledsoe for five years was a min ister of the Protestant Episcopal Church, but left that body about 1872 and went over to the Methodist Episcopal Church South, of which he was probably at once the most profound scholar, the most able dialectitian and the most powerful writer. For years he edited the Southern Review with con-

and logical ability. It may be doubted illness he was engaged in a philosophical and theological discussion with one of the ablest thinkers in our Church, Rev. Dr. Dabney, of the Southern Presinterian Review. Dr. Bledsoe published several theo logical works, the most famous of which are "An Examination of Edwards on the Will," and "Theodicy, or Vindication of the Divine Glory."

We feel profoundly sad at the cutting off of this magnificent intellect; a stal wart mind, a wonderfully vitalized energy, has been taken away from the South, the nation, the Church. Once a soldier of his country, and always a sollier whose lance was free and whose heart was impetuous in every warfare, he was yet a soldier of the Cross in the his Master's Kingdom over hearts, principalities and powers.

THE Richmond Dispatch throws Light on the split in the conservative party of Virginia. It says: "The caucus presided over by General W. H. F. Lee, (honored be the name) comprises a maiority of the Conservative members. The Barbour-Fulkerson-Robinson caucus consists, therefore, of a bolting majority backed by Radicals and Independents. It is in fact a caucus which exactly represents the voters who sent the Independents to Richmond-namely, a mixed crowd of Independents or bolting Conservatives and Radicals. There are 175 members in the two houses. Of these 13 are Radicals and 22 are Independents, Deduct these 35, and 140 remain. Of these, 71 constitute a majority. Now, the regular General-Lee Conservatives have 76 names on their list, of good men and true, who are not only willing but desirous to preserve the life of the Conservative party.

THE following from the Atlanta (Ga.) Independent, Republican, is just the kind of talk that the party of "moral ideas" does not like to hear: "Northern Republicans may wave the bloody shirt and grieve over the down-trodden condition of their Southern brethren under 'Hayes' policy,' but we must tell them the Southern Republicans like it. They like it because it is in accordance with the Constitution and gives them peace and respectable association.' Republicans must not forget that what is called "Hayes' policy" is nothing more nor less than National Democratic policy. Whether the Republicans re-member it or not, it will be borne in mind by the people.

THE Charlotte Observer notices the arge meeting of the merchants of Nashville, held several nights ago, to demand that the Legislature accept the proposition of the Southern Syndicate for the compromise of the Tennessee State debt upon the basis recently submitted, to wit: fifty cents on the dollar and four per cent. interest, and remarks:

We have no doubt that the merchants of Nashville represent the enlightened public sentiment of their State. No State can afford to carry such a load of debt as Tennessee and North Carolina have borne since the war. It is a complete check-rein upon the prosperity of any people, and instead of being too poor to pay it, we are really too poor to

THE solution of the Mexican problem is now the foremost question with the authorities at Washington. The special committee of the Senate to investigate the Mexican question, of which Senator Conkling is chairman, held its first meeting Tuesday, and at once proceeded to business. All the members of the committee were present. General Sherman was before the committee and gave them his views with regard to the situation on the Rio Grande. He does not apprehend any serious difficulty with Mexico, but bclieves that the best way to prevent trouble is to reinforce the army on the Rio Grande.

GENERAL NOTES.

On the site of Old Temple Bar, London, now in process of demolition, is to be erected a column or obelisk to mark the limits of the city's jurisdiction.

N. Y. Tribune: The President's message on Civil Service Reform will be looked for with eager interest. It may be a declaration of war, and then again it may not. John Reilly, the notorious pickpocket and burglar of war days, was arrested in New York, on the evening of the 17th inst., for the murder of Officer John O'Brien, in August 1864. San Francisco fishermen complain that the sea lions, which are protected by law, are increasing so rapidly and are so destructive of fish that they are endangering the needed supply for food for the citizens.

The United States Treasurer states that the old copper one cent is not and never was a legal tender for any amount whatever, and that, consequently, postmasters are not required by law to receive it in payment of postal dues.

Petersburg Index-Appeal: It is announced that fifty thousand votes are pledged in Pennsylvania for the gubernatorial candidate next year, whose influence shall save the necks of the three Mollie murderers now under just sentence of death and awaiting execu-

Mischief making women are blamed with much of the trouble which has lately perplexed the people of France. There are many grand dames who have the ear of President McMahon who would prefer the fussiness and flutter of the Empire to the staid and sober gait of Republican government.

A bill was introduced in the House last Friday for the regulation of salaries of letter carriers. In cities of more than 75,000 population it provides for two classes of carriers, to be paid $1,200 and $800, and in cities between 25,000 and 75,000 population the carriers are to receive $800 a year.

The Supreme Court of the United States has lately been disposing of over twenty cases on an average per week, and the bench being again full, the number will probably be increased. Case No. 138 on the docket has already been reached, and the reargument or-dered in the Credit Mobilier cases will Louisville Courier Journal 18th There is one thing the Republicans are very "earnest" about. They agnt with terrible desperation to prevent investigation into the methods used by Republican officials in conducting the business of the departments. The scratching accomplished so far by the Democrats has shown the rottenness of the the government. The Democrats will succeed in getting the machinery for investigation next month.

Once old Marshal Bugeaud was a candidate for election to the Chambers. He was not in the very best of health at the time and his doctor bade him beware of over-exerting or over-exciting himself, ordered him to bed and bled and purged him to keep him there. From time to time the doctor brought him the most encouraging reports of the canvass; all was going well, only let him keep himself perfectly quiet. At last the day came and the Marshal learned that he had been—beaten. Beaten?" he shouted, "by whom? "By your doctor."

How Ministers Think Pros-perity may be Regained. (Phil. Times, Dec. 18.)

At the regular meeting of the Philadelphia Conference of Baptist ministers, held yesterday, resolutions were adopted recommending that Thursday of the week of prayer (January 10, 1878) be employed as a season of special humiliation, supplication and prayer. The preamble says that the country has for gore than four years been suffering under commercial and industrial depression, which has brought great distress on all classes, and that this is due largely to moral causes, to selfishness, greed of gain, public and private dis-honesty, waste, recklessness and in gen-eral to a disregard of the rights of man and the laws of God. Prayer is to be offered for a revival of personal and national righteousness; for the bestow-ment of the truest wisdom upon our rulers, and for the favor of God, which alone can bring true prosperity. The resolutions further say that it would be regarded as a most fitting act if the President of the United States would recommend a day of public prayer in behalf of the country; invite brethren of all denominations to unite in securing the observance of such a season prayer, and direct that copies of the olutions be sent to the conferences of the Presbyterian and Methodist ministers and to the President of the United

The same resolutions were adopted at the Methodist Preachers' meeting.

Repudiating Col. Walter H. Taylor.

(Wilmington Review.) The misrepresentations made by Col. Walter H. Taylor in his work recently published, wherein he describes North Carolinians, at the battle of Gettysburg as first wavering, then faltering, and finally retiring from the field, leaving the glory of the day to Pickett's one division of "Magnificent Virginians," instead of redounding to his credit has rebounded, and struck him in a most tender point. The North Carolinians in the eastern part of the State who trade in Norfolk have been patronizing Col. Taylor, in a business way, pretty liberally, out since his injustice to our gallant dead, by the publication above referred to, and the gratuitous insult he offered the living heroes of Pettigrew's (Heth's) division by the same publication, the Tar Heels of Eastern Carolina, we understand, are withdrawing their patronage from this prejudiced writer

A Northern View of It, ( altimore Sun.)

A Northern contemporary suggests that the bitterness of the South Carolina Democrats toward the now disposessed Republican ring does not seem so very strange when one reads over that ring's record of plunder. Sound Reasons for Faith.

The American people are shrewd and observant. They are not often deceived by sham pretensions; but when they are, they soon discover their error. If Hostetter's stomach Bitters had been a sham, they would long since have discarded it; but finding that there was not a claim put forth in its behalf that its curative properties did not justify, they immediately gave it the preference to every article of its class. Time has only served to strengthen their faith, and has increased its popularity to an extent almost beyond parallel, even in this age of successmily proprietary medicines. It ranks foremost among the standard preparations of the day, and is endorsed by the medical fraternity and the newspaper press. It overcomes and prevents fever and ague and other malarial disorders with wonderous certainty, tones the system, banishes dyspepsia, remedies constipation and liver complaint, relieves gout, rheumatism, and affections of the bladder and kidneys.

Harper's Magazine. ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press. The veteran Magazine, which long ago outgrew its original title of the New Monthly Magazine, has not in the least abated the popularity it won at the outset, but has added to it in many ways, and has kept fairly abreast of the times, thanks to the enterprise of the publishers and the tact and wisdom of its editors. For whatever is best and most readable in the literature of travel, discovery, and fiction, the average reader of to-day looks to Harper's Magazine, just as expectantly as did the reader of a quarter of a century ago; there is the same admirable variety of contents and the same freshness and suggestiveness in its editorial departments now as then.—Boston Journal.
